August 12, 2011; Pembroke - Many local organizations and individuals have offered to help the new campus building fund. The latest organization to make a donation to the Capital Campaign is the Alice and Fraser Minor Sports Association.

The organization generously gave to the College Capital Campaign by committing $10,000 to the project. Association Treasurer Bruce Lloyd presented a ceremonial cheque to Algonquin's Jamie Bramburger, Manager of Community and Student Affairs, at the site of the new campus.

The Association is a registered charity that supports many community causes, including education and projects that aid youth.
